The Core Perspective-Game of Substance-Insights

In the game if you land on an insight you receive varying degrees of clarity. How do we land on/connect with an insight in everyday life? To do this we just need to tune inward, to look at ourselves, to listen to our inner voice, to engage ourselves, in order to receive insights that are always available to us. As you receive insights you are developing more clarity in varying degrees for yourself. In the game insights appear as the eye along the path of the spiral. insights are assigned different clarity levels from 1 to 3. Level 3 being a breakthrough level. True clarity level is the key. Your clarity level is reduced by the number of patterns currently in your vibrational mix that no longer serve you. These patterns are creating energy blocks of varying density levels (1, 2 or 3) just waiting to be dissipated and cleared

As your true clarity levels increase you are rewarded with depth perception or in other words extra sensory perception (ESP). The reward of ESP is well worth the effort it takes to receive it. This process is referred to as being enlightened or being illuminated. A high level of true clarity plays a large role in attaining a high substance level during the game. These gifts of clarity are often referred to as the "clair gifts":

claircognizance-clear knowing clairvoyance - clear seeing clairaudience - clear hearing clairescence - clear smelling clairgustance- clear tasting clairsentience - clear feeling

The following are examples of insights received and the resulting clarity gained:

I see that I am unique so I know to respect the space of others.
I see that my happiness is a choice so I know not try to control the behavior of others in order to find happiness.
I see that power struggles are lose, lose so I will always find another way to interrelate with others.
I see a person wearing a "mask" and not being real. I know that their energy system will be compromised and so will their views.
I see a strong energy block in another person and I know why I feel stifled.
I see the ease of the situation and I realize why I feel expansive and hopeful.
I see that we are opposites so I know to create more space between us.
I see how my actions are affecting another and I make adjustments to bring situations closer towards balance.
I see my desires manifesting before my very eyes and this increases my trust and acceptance of the unfolding.
I see that I need to dissipate/clear a few patterns of behavior within myself as I can't feel my way forward as easily as I have before.
